

The Rotunda Geology Group (RGG)

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
CONSENT FORM for January to December 2018
Consent needs to be renewed annually.

We aim to bring you an interesting programme of talks and field visits across the year.

We want this to go on !

So that we can communicate with you, PLEASE RETURN this completed permissions form.

From May 25th 2018, personal data stored by organisations must be processed and held lawfully, as defined by the General Data Protection Regulation. So that we may continue to communicate and distribute information to you, we must have your informed consent. The RGG's Privacy Policy, which can be found on our website (or is attached to your email), explains what data we hold (your contact information) and how it will be processed.

You may be able to return this directly by clicking on the envelope icon on the PDF toolbar – or, save your completed form to your computer, then forward it as an attachment to:

TheSecretary@RotundaGeologyGroup.org

To inform consent, you can read The Rotunda Geology Group's GDPR Privacy Policy here:

<http://www.rotundageologygroup.org/privacy>

I have read The Rotunda Geology Group's GDPR Privacy Policy and agree to the following:

*Please enter
Y / Yes
or N / No*

1. I am willing to receive communications from the RGG

1.1 By email *(PREFERRED)

1.2 By post

1.3 By telephone

1.4 By SMS text

- Email, where possible, is preferred by us, due to costs. You have the right to cancel, or change, part or all of this consent at any time by contacting The Secretary.
- Your contact information is never shared with other organisations.
- Electronic contact information is shared with RGG Officers in secure encrypted files.

Name: Date:

Email:

*You may add more contact details below. Optional information, that may help us if emailing fails.

Address:

Telephone: Mobile: